

MILLIGAN

UNIVERSITY

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

LEADERSHIP (EdD)

- Certify to be a principal or school administrator
- 2-year program flexibly meets the needs of school personnel
- 3-4 online and face-to-face courses per term
- Mentored experience applies theory to real-world situations
- Classes start each June

EDUCATION SPECIALIST (EdS)

- Certify to become a principal or school administrator
- Same courses as EdD without dissertation requirement
- 18-month program

WHAT MAKES US UNIQUE

Our graduates are uniquely prepared to become principals and administrators in public and non-public school systems, nonprofits, and government agencies. Our graduates are recognized as caring servant-leaders who desire to make a difference. Committed and caring faculty work with you through each step of the program.

OUTSTANDING REPUTATION

- One of only 9 programs with an “Exceeds Expectations” rating on the State Board of Education Report Card
- Second and third-year employment retention rates exceed the state average
- Our employed teacher graduates “exceed expectation” on measures related to teacher observations and student-growth scores, scoring well above the state average

CHRISTIAN MISSION

Every child deserves a quality teacher and caregiver, so Milligan prepares professionals who integrate their Christian faith, social responsibility, and knowledge and skills to contribute to a responsible and caring community.

ACCREDITED

Milligan is accredited by NCATE, the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (2010 Massachusetts Ave. NW, Suite 500, Washington, DC 20036; 202.466.7496), which means your degree from Milligan is instantly recognized throughout the country for its quality.

MILLIGAN
UNIVERSITY

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION